Pittsburgh Dean to Head Mercersburg

DR. C. S. TIPPETTS

Mercersburg, Pa., Mar 4—Election of Dr. Charles S. Tippetts, dean of school of business administration, University of Pittsburgh, as head master of the Mercersburg academy, and successor to Dr. Boyd Edwards, was announced Monday. Selection was made by the Academy's board of regents in a special meeting held Saturday in Philadelphia when the governing body acted on the recommendation of the committee appointed last June to secure a successor to Doctor Edwards. Doctor Tippetts is a graduate of Mercersburg and of Princeton university.

Doctor Edwards' request to retire July 1, 1941, was in accordance with the customary retirement age of 65, which he will reach in May, and which prevails for all members of the academy staff since the adoption of the retirement pension plan under the present administration. Doctor Edwards, who has been head of Mercersburg since 1928, succeeded Dr. William Mann Irvine, founder of Mercersburg as a preparatory school for boys.

FIRST GOLFER DRAFTED

Coral Gables, Fla., March 4 (AP)—A draft board summons pulled Ed Oliver out of the international four ball golf tournament today but his partner, Clayton Heafner of Linville, N. C., probably will be permitted to choose a substitute teammate. Oliver caught a midnight plane for Wilmington, Del. to report to selective service officials who declared that he had to be there today. Oliver is the first "name" golfer to be called for military training.

HOTEL OWNER SUCCUMBS

Bradford, Pa., March 4 (AP)—Grace E. Emery, who built and operated the Emery hotel here, died of pneumonia in New York last night. An oil operator in her own right, she was the daughter of Lewis Emery, one-time champion of the senate and state assembly.

R-a-d-i-o Programs

[By the Associated Press]

New York, March 4—America's town meeting, still traveling along the Pacific coast in its first coast to coast tour, will consider subjects related to that area in its next two stops.

This week the Thursday night NBC-blue series will halt at San Francisco to debate the question: "Is War with Japan Inevitable?" Differing viewpoints will come from Chester H. Rowell, former editor of the San Francisco Chronicle; Tully K. Knoles, president of the College of the Pacific, and Maj. Gen. David P. Barrows.

Next week Seattle is the broadcast point. There the topic is: "Shall We Guarantee Peace in the Pacific?" After that the program will turn eastward.

First stop last week at Los Angeles was concerned with a discussion of the movies and defense.

Thousands of Catholics in Baltimore today began the annual Novena to St. Francis Xavier, better known as the Novena of Grace, in churches scattered throughout the city. In St. Ignatius' church, Calvert and Madison streets, where the devotions were started by the late Rev. F. X. Brady, S. J., the services will be practically continuous from early morning until 8:45 p. m. daily. An afternoon service will be broadcast over station WFBR at 2:30 o'clock from the church for the ill and aged. The Novena will continue for nine days.
